Dear Ms. Haas:

On Wednesday, May 10, 2006, I filed my financial disclosure statement for 2005. It has come to my attention that I inadvertently failed to check a block under value of asset, Schedule III.

Please allow this letter to inform you that my financial disclosure statement for 2005, page 3, Schedule III-Assets and "Unearned Income", should have included a check under the $50,001 - $100,000 block, value of asset for Smith Educational Enterprises, Inc.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please contact my office if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Ted Strickland

Dear Ms. Haas,

It has come to my attention that I failed to note three items in Schedule VI of my 2005 Financial Disclosure Report. These items were gifts that I received from my friends in Congress after my home and its contents were destroyed by Hurricane Katrina. I am positive that no gift reached the threshold of disclosure. However, I would like to make public the charity that I received from my friends in the U.S. House of Representatives, so that there is no confusion as to my ethical conduct in connection with my responsibilities as the elected representative of the Fourth District of Mississippi. As such, this letter serves as an addendum to my 2005 Financial Disclosure Report.

The first addendum item I wish to report is a group donation that was taken up by my colleagues. In the two weeks following Hurricane Katrina, I remained in South Mississippi to assist with emergency response efforts. In my absence, my colleagues took up a collection and delivered approximately $5000 to my daughter, Emily Taylor, who lives on Capitol Hill. Emily then passed the funds onto my wife, Margaret Gordon Taylor, who visited D.C. shortly after the storm. Margaret used the contributions to pay for costs incurred during hurricane evacuation and to replace personal belongings such as clothing, shoes, and other household items for my family.

After my wife informed me of this generous gift, I requested a list of donors. Unfortunately, donations were collected by "passing the hat." Thirty-one of my colleagues acknowledged their donations but did not identify the amount of their individual donations. I am enclosing a list of those colleagues for your review, and I give you my express permission to make those names part of the public record.

Additionally, three Members presented me with checks upon my return to Washington. While I was grateful for their generosity, I returned each check and recommended that the funds be used for those who were truly in need. Those Members who presented me with personal checks are Dr. Mike Burgess of Texas, Virgil Goode of Virginia, and Eni Faleomavaega of American Samoa.

The second addendum item I would like to include in my 2005 Financial Disclosure Report is the gift of a navy blazer from my good friend and colleague Marion Berry of Arkansas. As Marion presented the jacket to me as a gift, I did not ask and do not know the value of it.

My third and final item is a similar gift: a blazer presented to me by my friend and colleague James Clyburn of South Carolina. Again, as this was a gift, I did not ask, nor do I know the value of it.

Again, I regret omitting these items from my 2005 Financial Disclosure Report. However, as stated, I am confident that no single gift from my friends and colleagues exceeded the threshold for reporting under Schedule VI. If you have any questions or require any further clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me personally.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely,

| Identify (a) each asset held for investment or production of income with a fair market value at the close of the reporting year, and (b) any other asset or source of "unearned" income during the year. For rental properties, provide an address, provide full names of tenants, and provide the name of the IRA (i.e., one where you have the power to select the specific investments), provide information on each asset in the account, and provide the name of the IRA and the income earned for the account. For an IRA or retirement plan that is not self-directed, name the institution holding the account and provide the name of the IRA for the reporting period. For an active business that is not publicly traded, in Block A state the nature of the business and its geographic location. For additional information, see the instruction booklet for the reporting year. |    | If you use a valuation method other than fair market value, please specify the method used. If an asset was sold and is included only because it generated income, the value should be "None." |      |             |                  |                   |                    |                     |                     |                       |                         |                          |                           |                   | Check all columns that apply. Leave blank if asset did not generate any income during the calendar year. |           |      |          | For retirement plans or accounts that do not allow you to choose specific investments, you may write "IRA" for income. For all other assets, indicate the appropriate box below. Dividends, even if reinvested, should be listed as income. | BLOCK AAsset and/or Income SourceIdentify (a) each asset held for investment or production of income with a fair market value exceeding $1,000 at the end of the reporting period, and (b) any other asset or source of income which generated more than $200 in "unearned" income during the year. For rental property or land, provide an address. Provide full names of any mutual funds. For a self-directed IRA (i.e., one where you have the power to select the specific investments) providing information on each asset in the account that is not a mutual fund, provide the name of the asset and the account. For an IRA or non-IRA plan that is not self-directed, name the institution holding the account and provide its value at the end of the reporting period. For an active business that is not publicly traded, in Block A state the nature of the business and its geographic location. For additional information, see instruction booklet for the reporting year. | BLOCK BYear-End Value of AssetAt close of reporting year. If you use a valuation method other than market value, please specify the method used. If an asset was sold and is included only because it is generated income, the value should be "None." | BLOCK CType of IncomeIf other than one of the listed categories, specify the type of income by writing a brief description in this block. (For example: Partnership income or farm income) | BLOCK DAmount of IncomeFor retirement plans or accounts that do not allow you to choose specific investments, you may write "N/A." For all other assets, indicate the category of income by checking the appropriate box below. Maximum Anniversary Value (MAV) ..... $338,416.38

The MAV above is for illustration purposes only and is based on the oldest age of the Owners and Annuitants currently on file. The MAV actual values may differ and will be based on the actual decedent, age at death, and the highest anniversary value (adjusted for subsequent surrenders/premium payments) attained prior to the earliest of the date of death or decedent's 81st Birthday.

The MAV is not equivalent to the final Death Benefit, it is only one component of the overall Death Benefit calculation. The Death Benefit will be calculated on all contracts associated with this client the day we receive the certified death certificate. Once the Death Benefit is calculated, the benefit amount remains invested and is subject to market fluctuation until complete settlement instructions are received. Contractual and prospectus provisions will be the sole and final determinant of all Death Benefits.

Dear Ms. Haas,

Upon review of my 2005 Financial Disclosure Statement that I recently filed, on Schedule VII on page 6, under the entry for the "Warren Chisholm Benefit to Keep Texas Beautiful," my lodging entry should reflect a "Y" rather than an "N."

Sincerely,
